

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest with balanced journalism.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without showing a anti-Bush piece of the same length and tone is a violation of the law.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
